

VERSE 1

C F C
I hate you and you hate me
F C G7 C
So let's fight and set us free
C F C
From the bitterness inside
F C G7 C
That up to now, we've learnt to hide.

C G F G
|| Bomb, bomb, bomb, bomb :||

BRIDGE 1

F C G7 C
Let's not look into the past
F C G7 C
At who and what has twisted us.

F
I am right and so are you
But two rights that cannot do.

C
Respect and tolerance of others
Is the way to become brothers
But dollar men's profits of every nation
Need conflict, fear and exploitation.

C
God is the source of truth and love
Of tolerance and understanding.
He's on my side, not on your side
So ##### to you, 'cos our bombs are landing.

C G F G
|| Bomb, bomb, bomb, bomb :||

F
Now living in peace would be really healthy
But the greedy rich could not be so wealthy.

C F C
So let's move the circle one turn more
F C G7 C
Quickly towards the next war.

C
To beat the mighty dollar men
And their political friends
Is a fight we cannot win.
So let's not try. Let's just give in.

F
Or maybe the World will join the play
And take the living-room away.

F
For school teaches us to be powerless
And bow down in fear to the dollar-men.

NC
But before it does...
C F C
Let's move the circle one turn on
F C G7 C
On towards Armaged—ed—on.

C
So come and fight and maybe die.
There's no time now to ask why.
I will kill your wife and friends.
You'll kill my wife and children.

Play: C Capo: 0 Sing: C

F
For women and children do not understand
What it means to be a man.

Intro. Verse 1 chords
(first 2 lines)

I hate you and you hate me
E ----- F F E

C
Then the World will be a better place
For the mighty dollar men.
They'll build a future and profit from
The building of a brand new

The chord sequence for the VERSES are the same as VERSE 1.
The chord sequence for the BRIDGES
(framed text) are the same as BRIDGE 1.