Verse 1

Am

You have a beautiful garden.

E7 Am

I have seeds we could sow

Intro: Am walz

In your beautiful garden

E7 Am NOTES G A B walk

And watch the young flowers grow.

You have a beautiful garden
A ----- B A E E

Bridge 1

D7

I like the bush in your garden

G (Barre then walk down to E)

When the waves of life through it flow

Am

I'd like to lie in your garden

E7 Am

In that soft downy place you don't mow.

Verse 2

Am

The fluttering heart of your garden

E7 Am

Through two pillows, I feel it beat

Enjoying the warmth of your garden

E7 Am

We sigh in the shimmering heat.

Bridge 2

D7

Sometimes we talk of the future

G (Barre then walk down to E)

And what we think it might bring

Am

But mostly we lie in your garden

E7 Am

And listen to our hearts sing.

INST la lalal lalala la... with Verse 1 + Bridge 1 chords

Verse 1

Bridge 1 – repeat last 2 lines

Erotic ambiguity in the folk song tradition

The first line shows the notes under the text. Am and E7 are played at fret 5.
